From the Pastor

Greetings of Peace as we officially enter into the season of Summer this week on Thursday, June 20th at 4:51 PM. It happens that day is also “the longest day of the year.” We will enjoy the most daylight of the calendar year since the sun is at its most northern point in the sky – that is in the Northern Hemisphere. After this date, the days actually start getting “shorter.” That is the length of daylight starts to decrease, day by day, until the first day of winter. This year Winter begins Saturday December 21 – and then it is Christmas! And so, enjoy this season of summer and all that it brings. For those who are wondering, Autumn (Fall) begins on Sunday September 22!

This is Father’s Day weekend. Blessings to all the dads, grandfathers, step-fathers, godfathers, fathers-in-spirit, and all those who show us God’s Loving, Fatherly care. Thank you for all you do for us. You are in our prayers.

Often in the month of June we host a “visiting missionary” at our parish as we participate in the Annual Missionary Cooperative Appeal to support the “work of Faith” in varied areas of our world. I recently received word that the missionary who will come here to St. Joan of Arc will come to us in mid-August. I will share more information on our 2024 Missionary Cooperative Appeal as we draw closer to August.

I have some important news about our parish Ministerial Staff. Please join me in expressing thanks for Mrs. Millie Prebel, our Parish Pastoral Minister. Millie began serving here at St. Joan of Arc as our Pastoral Minister over 2 years ago. She is wonderful! It happens that "Life tugs us in different directions" and Millie has discerned that she will be moving on from her role here at SJA at the end of the month. We wish her our best.

Godspeed, Millie. Thank you for your ministry and service. You are a gift. Many blessings to you. Stay tuned for more information on how we can express our thanks to Millie.

Finally, a reminder that this month – and through the "summer months" of June, July, and August – our Tuesday mass is celebrated at 8:00 AM.

Have a great week. You are in my heart and prayers.

Blessings and peace,

Fr. Gary
